

Pennsauken Neighbors Helping Neighbors will hold its 2nd annual Crab-a-Palooza spectacular block party from 2 to 10 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 18 in the parking lot of Pinsetter Bar & Bowl on Maple Avenue. Cover charge is $5. The day-into-night event will feature live music by popular South Jersey bands and a DJ spinning top 40 tunes, South Jersey's largest outdoor bar featuring favorite beverages, vendors selling crafts, jewelry, tie-dye T-shirts and more, tables for eating and relaxing and children's activities.

Available for purchase will be the best-of-the season fresh caught large blue-claw crabs by the dozen at a reasonable cost, succulent shrimp and steamed clams. Or landlubbers can purchase hot dogs, hamburgers and grilled chicken right off the "Barbie."

Bring a lawn chair and spend an afternoon of great food, lots of music, games, vendors and more.

A portion of the proceeds benefit Neighbors Helping Neighbors, a nonprofit organization that offers one-time financial grants directly to pay an overdue bill or other emergency expense for Pennsauken residents who may need a helping hand. The assistance is awarded through an application process. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and grants are awarded each month.
